

Non-standard Solutions

Technical data sheet

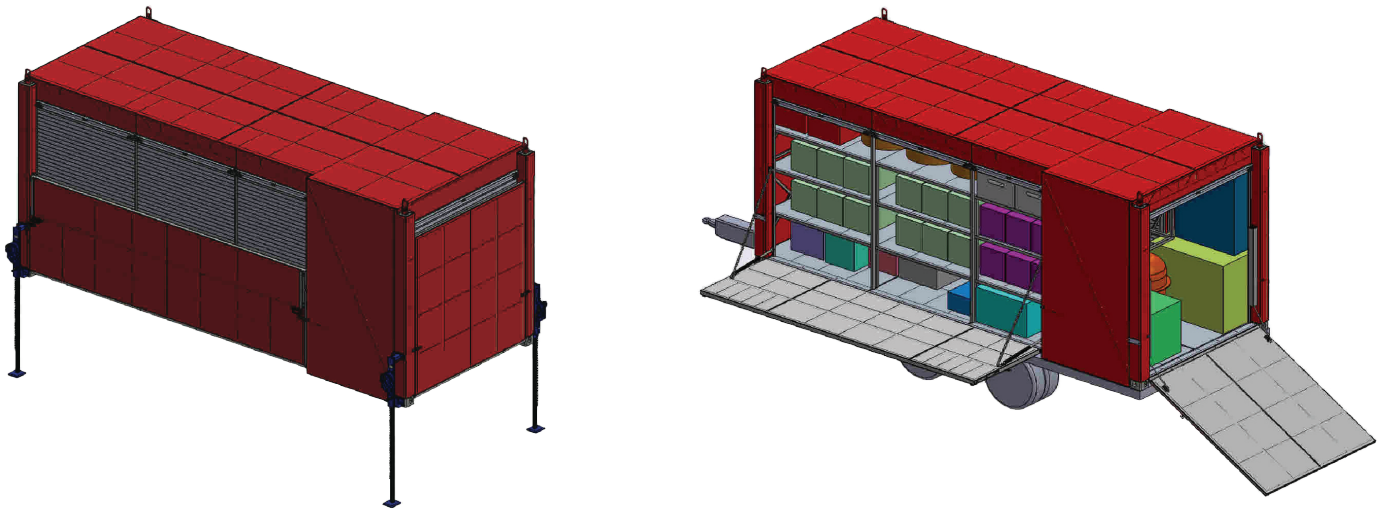

Arete manufactures different types of Non-standard Solutions that can be used in the most unusual rescue operations. Such constructions are often required by first response and military services. Arete always strives to produce special type solutions to respond on market different requests. Customized Non-standard Solutions always exceed expectations and are unique in their kind.

Non-standard Solutions

Technical data sheet

Each Non-standard Solution is designed individually, and customers are always able to approve 3D models of a product while it is in designing stage. For each specific project Arete develops a unique microelectronics and software to fulfil modern market demands and create system on the edge of technologies.

Key Facts

Stainless steel or aluminium materials

Air-conditioned and heating options

Smart control systems

Custom design

Various colours and logos can be fitted

Variety of roller shutter door option

